SON IN SANITARIUM. COMPENSATION ASKED BY MRS. EMMA STAFFORD

Mrs. Emma Stafford of 272 River street is claiming workman's compensation against the Remington Arms & Ammunition Co. for an injury she claims her son, George L. Stafford, suffered while in the employ of the company. Stafford is now undergoing treatment at a sanitarium at Greens Farms. It is claimed he was walking past one of the company's buildings which he was guarding when a large piece of plaster fell on his head. This was on Oct. 12. He did not report the matter until he left the employ of the company.

Before Compensation Commissioner E. T. Buckingham yesterday, Edward W. Carpenter, employment manager for the company, and Capt. Edges, denied that any such injury befell Stafford while on duty at the plant. The commissioner continued the hearing until June 19.

KEOGH NAMES NEWTON.

New Haven, May 19—Alterates to the Democratic National convention, who have been named, are as follows: Senator Stephen Whitney for Major L. E. Stoddard, John J. Byrnes, of Windsor Locks, for M. J. O'Connor, Enfield, P. H. Condon, of Bristol, for Thomas Hewes, of Farmington; Thos. Newton of Greenwich, for John Keogh of Norwalk.

BARNARD BANS SOCIETIES.

New York, May 19—Secret societies have been definitely placed under the ban at Barnard College by an election held by the students, the result of which was made public today. The secret societies which formerly existed at the college were suspended by the faculty three years ago.

GERMAN AERO BROUGHT DOWN.

Paris, May 19—Corporal Kiffin Rockwell, of Atlanta, Ga., a member of the American flying squadron, yesterday attacked a German aeroplane near Hartmann's-Weller-Kopf. The German machine was brought down in flames.

DELANEY TO TELL OF PROBLEMS IN COURT

Prosecuting Attorney A. L. Delaney will address the Men's club of Trinity P. E. church at 8 o'clock next Monday evening. His subject will be: "Cases in the City Court." He will relate some of the problems confronting the authorities in Bridgeport at the present time. Every morning the court determines for the time being at least the fate of men and women, boys and girls who have broken the laws. Many of them are unfortunate, others intentionally lawless. Recent growth of the city has brought an increasing number of prisoners. Attorney Delaney will tell of his years of experience in dealing with these cases. President Wallace A. Smith will be chairman and refreshments will be served.

The U. S. S. Bridge, a supply ship, was launched at the Charleston, Mass. navy yard.
